Our school maintains photographs and digital images of school events. It has become customary to take photos of students engaged in activities to create a pictorial and historical record of school life and as a means of presenting projects and work done. Photographs may be published on our school website, newsletters, calendars and local and national newspapers, etc.

We are seeking permission to allow our school to use these at the discretion of the school authorities.

I/We give permission to use photographs as set out above
